Gunman Wanted CIA Job

NEW YORK—A gunman demanding a new passport and a CIA job took 10 persons hostage at a Queens savings and loan office and held them for up to 3½ hours before he was overpowered by police, authorities said.

No one was injured, but one of the hostages complained of chest pains and was taken to a hospital for examination.

The gunman, identified as Costica Studineanu, 25, a Romanian refugee, was overpowered by an Emergency Service Unit officer who had entered the building through the basement to reach the Union Federal Savings and Loan Association branch office.

Tom McCarthy, spokesman for Queens District Attorney John Santucci, said Studineanu was booked on charges of robbery, possession of a dangerous weapon and unlawful imprisonment.
